Homecoming '73

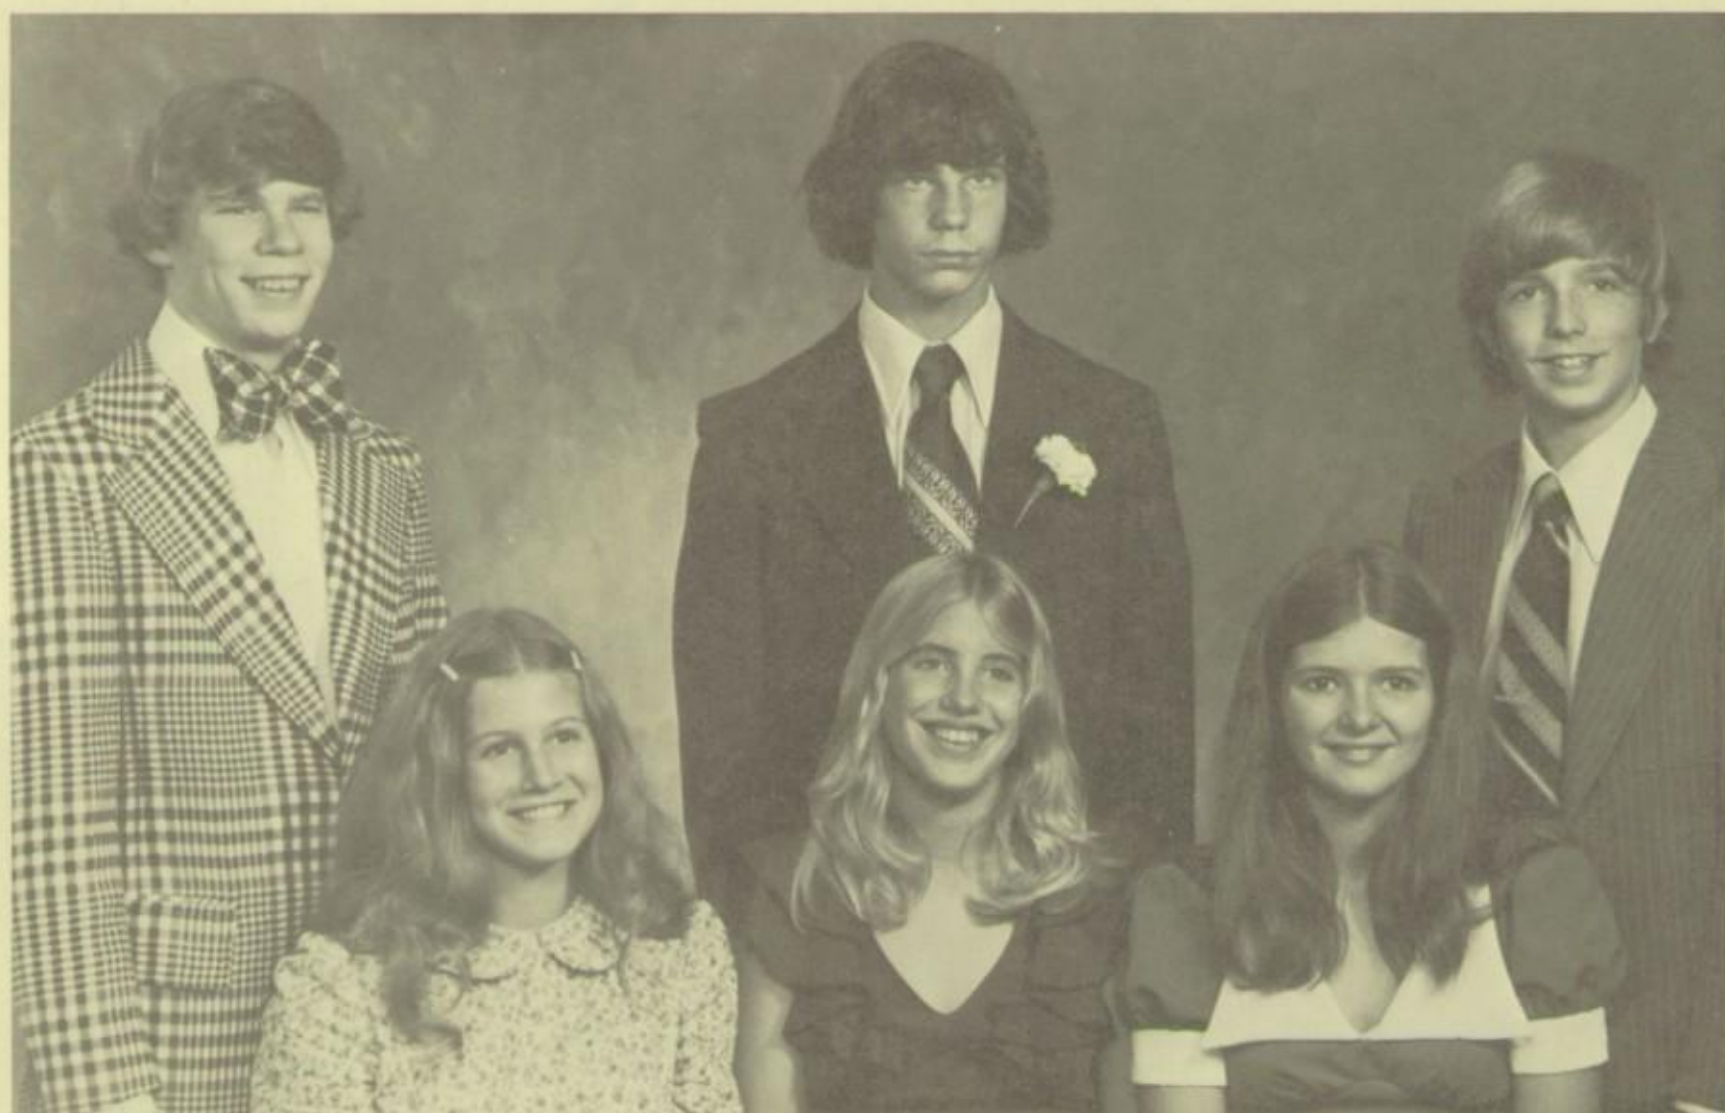

Royalty

Janet and Walter

Field day events were forced into the gym for Homecoming 1973 because of rain. The seniors won the float contest and finished in first place, followed by the juniors in second, sophomores were third and freshmen fourth.

In rain and fog, the Comets easily defeated the East Troy Trojans. The final score was 21 to 6.

Speedy and the Alka-Seltzers played at the Homecoming dance. They brought with them a rubber chicken, named Charley, which they hung from the drum. The theme of the dance was "Yesterday." Janet Roling and Walter Fleming reigned over Homecoming 1973.

REPRESENTATIVES: Vicki Van Dan, Ed Roling, Cheryl Brick, Jeff Crispell, Joleen Jedlicka, Jay Hoag.

Student Council established a "Spirit Cup" to promote school spirit. Points were awarded to classes similar to Homecoming events. Classes were awarded points for pep contest winners, Pickle Jar placings, most kids on Honor Roll, least number of total detentions, Homecoming placings, and so on. At the end of the year the class with the highest total number of points will have it's graduating year engraved on the Spirit Cup.

A.F.S. Speaks Out!

ENG CHONG CHUA from Malaysia
IRMELI MIKKONEN from Finland
REHA GENCOSMAN from Turkey

For many years A.F.S. students have added a great deal to D-DHS and the community. This year the ERA staff has decided to interview our foreign visitors about their opinions and views of Delavan, Darien, and the United States.

ERA: What was your first misconception of the United States that was cleared up: IMPPA: That all people are rich and they all live in big cities.

ENG: That all Americans were filthy rich.

REHA: That there was a lot of crime and excitement in big cities. However, I came to a small town and liked it.

ERA: Has your attitude

States?
changed about the United IMMPA: Yes, people are the same all over. I thought everyone would use drugs, but they don't. I also thought there would be different levels and different types of people.

ENG: Yes, there are good Americans too. But, the Americans don't give a good impression. Most Americans still puzzle me. Such as what people do and how they contradict each other.

"ALL AMERICANS ARE RICH"

REHA: Yes, I thought there were no poor people, but found out there are.

ERA: What have been your most memorable experiences?

IMPPA: My class trip, the first day of school, Homecoming, AFS week in Milwaukee, the Halloween party for AFS, and the carnival.

ENG: AFS week in Milwaukee, class trip, walking the halls with a fake pass, AFS Carnival, the changing of seasons, falling into a creek head first while tobogganing, and my opportunities to travel and see the U.S.

REHA: The class trip, the first day of school, Homecoming, AFS week in Milwaukee, AFS Carnival, the cold winter, and the "Energy Crisis."

ERA: What is the first thing you will do when you get home?

IMPPA: Sleep, party, and work.

ENG: Sleep, eat a good seafood meal (I especially miss frog legs), relax, and readjust.

REHA: Cry and go swimming.

ERA: Will you have problems speaking your language when you get home?

IMPPA: Yes. Even now I find it hard to speak Finnish with Mr. Kinnunen.

ENG: Yes.

REHA: Yes.

ERA: What are the things you liked best about the United States?

IMPPA: People and differences.

ENG: The differences in culture.

REHA: Football, friendly people, hamburgers, and shakes.

ERA: What are your impressions of the States now?

IMPPA: It has a better standard of living and the country is larger than I expected.

ENG: Wasteful--the society is affluent and the pace of life is too fast.

REHA: We waste a lot, and there are racial problems.

ERA: What are the things you liked best about your stay?

IMPPA: The small community--"a lot happens."

ENG: Size, scenery, school, and teachers.

REHA: Small, quiet and a closed society.

ERA: Do you like American food?

IMPPA: Yes, hamburgers and hotdogs. I hate peanut butter, love egg salad (I won't marry it even though I love it).

ENG: "Oh no!" Okay, but I hate macaroni and cheese.

REHA: Yes, except for chili and "Spanish Lice."

ERA: What are the things you miss the most?

IMPPA: Sauna bath, Finnish bread, family and friends.

ENG: Speaking Chinese,

friends, and my father.

ERA: Did you find it hard to adjust to the U.S.?

IMPPA: The pace of living is too fast.

ENG: No.

REHA: Not really. The language was a problem.

ERA: What things are really different?

IMPPA: The school system is too easy, modular scheduling, and the long school day.

ENG: There's a more relaxed school atmosphere--too easy. Cars eat up too much gas. There's a more mature relationship between teachers and students.

REHA: The school system is too easy. Big cars, way of life, and basketball rules.

ERA: What do you think about the kids in Delavan?

IMPPA: I like them. A lot of kids remind me of my friends.

ENG: Okay.

REHA: They're good kids--a lot different than my friends in Turkey. I have a closer relationship with kids in Turkey.

"THINGS AMERICAN- FOOTBALL-
HAMBURGERS- FRIENDLY PEOPLE-

Malaysian food and my friends.

REHA: Turkish food,

J. Edmunds, E. Chong, K. Bane, L. Milkonen, Frazier, R. Gencosman, E. McCoy, M. Guiler, D. Ambrose. SECOND ROW: B. Cruikshank, P. Debruin, T. Sklenar, L. Peterson, W. McNamara, B. Sklenar, M. Keech, G. Rahn, M. Wiedmeyer, J. Scott, C. Peterson, J. Hellwig, G. Brown, J. Allie,

J. Jedlicka, T. Davis, M. Tully. BACK ROW: K. Schultz, N. Guiler, K. Dent, J. Olson, J. Scott, R. Koch, D. Williams, J. Schmaling, R. Palmer, J. Schrine, J. Evans, S. Bustamante, J. McCoy, D. Dragel, M. Giannonatti, D. Drain, K. O'Brien, B. Wrobel, J. Rodgers, J. Schmaling, J. Kilkenny.

D-DHS Goes to Peru With Mark Holman

Not only does Delavan-Darien have AFS students from foreign countries, but last year we sent one of our own students to Peru. Mark Holman lived in Peru for one year experiencing a different way of life. The following interview looks back on Mark's stay in South America.

"BEING THE 'ODD' ONE MAKES IT EASIER."

Mark--holding Peruvian souvenirs.

ERA: Where did you live in Peru?

MARK: I lived in Arequipa which is in the southern part of Peru. It's the largest city in Peru with a population of 200,000.

ERA: How big a family did you live with?

MARK: I lived with two families. My first family consisted of seven including me and there were five of us in the second family. I was the oldest in the family.

ERA: How big was the school you attended?

MARK: There were about 400-450 students, all boys. The school system was very different. The teachers "tell you" and you don't ask why. You sat in the same classroom all day and the teachers came to you for classes. The school was run by a priest. There were thirteen subjects and you had no choice.

ERA: What were your most memorable experiences?

MARK: Dreaming in Spanish. Then I knew I had really gotten into the swing of things. It was a pretty good dream too! Others were meeting both families, my eighteenth birthday party, and visiting Machi Pughu - the Inca Ruins.

ERA: What were the things you liked best about Peru?

MARK: The slower pace of life and the parties. The customs like greeting people - kissing the girls on the cheek and shaking hands with the guys.

ERA: Did you have problems speaking their language?

MARK: Yes. The first three months I could hardly speak Spanish, but then it came pretty fast.

ERA: What things were really different?

MARK: I went to an all boys' school. Their philosophy on dating was different too - dating hardly existed. I averaged a party a week. The father dominated the family. Just about everyone smokes and drinking isn't frowned upon like here. The climate was much different. It averaged between 60°-80°. It only rained one month while I was there.

ERA: Did you like the food and what were the most common foods?

MARK: Rice, potatoes, and meat were the most common. More than one-half of the foods we eat today originated in Peru. The preparation of the foods, though, was different. Fruits and seafoods were also common.

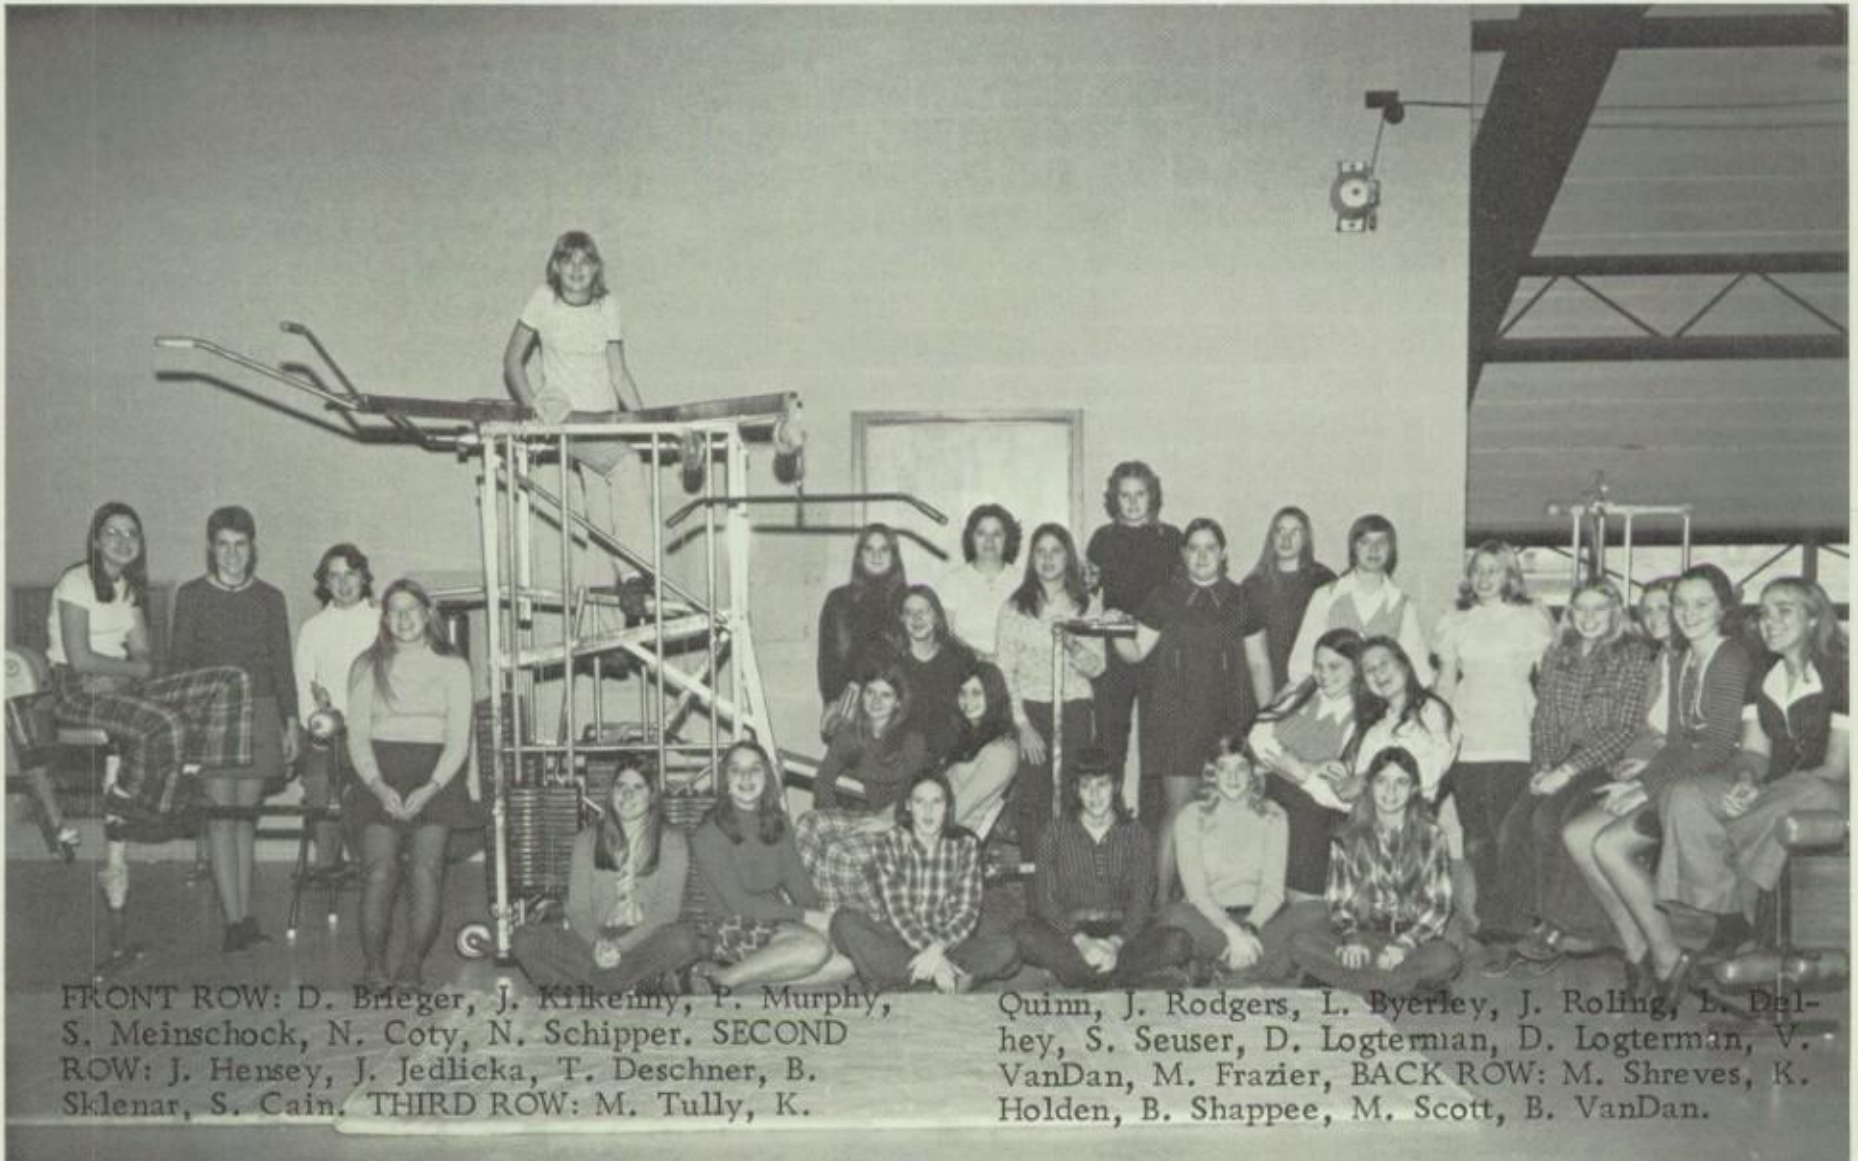

ERA: What American ways did you miss most?

MARK: I didn't miss too much. My school wasn't co-ed. I did miss certain foods like hamburgers and drive-in restaurants.

ERA: How has traveling to different parts of the world and living there for long periods of time affected your understanding of peoples and cultures?

MARK: I've learned that different people have their ways of life and I've mine, although I end up changing mine slightly. Becoming part of a different culture is fantastic. I learned more about myself.
